Dot Foods, Inc.

In a nutshell, tell us about you!

I'm managed global supply chain and transportation for over 20 years.

What company do you work for and what position do you hold?

International Logistics Manager for Dot Foods, Inc.

What makes your company different from other companies in your industry?

Our customer-focused strategy and core company values that dictate forward thinking and innovation. We anticipate customer needs and proactively work to provide solutions.

What is the biggest challenge you face in your industry?

Fluctuating trade tariffs and reacting accordingly to ensure an uninterrupted supply chain to my customers.

What are some of your most recent/greatest accomplishments?

Teaming with Georgia Port Authority to route all my east coast cargo through the Port of Savannah. They have a remarkably well run operation, the best port in the US. Utilizing the Port of Savannah has eliminated transportation delays experienced at other ports, resulting in 20% increased service levels to my customers.

Why are you a Transportation Club Member?

Networking! I've met countless colleagues and teammates with whom I've strategically partnered with for increased efficiencies and reduced costs in all facets of international and domestic transportation.
